"Although we currently boast many of the top Canadian clients in the JD Edwards user community such as GE Hitachi Nuclear Energy, SNC Lavalin and Oxford Properties, to name a few, this partnership will be a catalyst in furthering Global's spreadsheet automation solutions as the de facto best practice in spreadsheet automation for use with JD Edwards," comments Bjorn Beer, Director Strategic Accounts at Global Software, Inc.

GE Hitachi Nuclear Energy Canada Inc., a common client of both TeamCain and Global Software, Inc. is anticipating the benefits of this partnership. Denis Trudell, Systems Analyst at GE Hitachi exclaims, "We have worked with TeamCain for a number of years on several JDE initiatives, and have also made great use of the Spreadsheet Server solution from Global Software since 2008. We think it is great that two of our strongest and best partners are joining forces, and we believe the Global Software's solutions are a great addition to the suite of products and services TeamCain already offers to Oracle's JDE customers."

Members of the JDE community in North America can look forward to upcoming joint Global-TeamCain web-based information sessions that will illustrate the best practices in spreadsheet automation in the JDE ecosystem today.
